

Do It Again Day 3: Chorus

Your promise still stands
Great is Your faithfulness
Faithfulness
I'm still in Your hands
This is my confidence
You've never failed me yet

The Lord is a refuge for the oppressed,
a stronghold in times of trouble.
Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

To know the name of Jesus is to be in relationship with Him. We trust in Him through our faith. And we seek Him to know him more. In all of life, we can grow in our understanding of the faithfulness of God to each of us.

How has your understanding of God evolved throughout your life? How has it evolved more recently? Do you continue to grow in relationship with Him?

Even in times of trouble, God is a stronghold, a refuge. He has us in His hands. Envision the loving hands of a protector, comforting something of great value in His hands. What a comforting thought that God's hands can be our place of shelter and safety.

Do you feel like you're in God's hands today? If not, why do you think that is? If so, how does that comfort you? Do you feel like you are of value to God? Let the Holy Spirit minister to your heart and show you just how great of value you are to Him.

As we grow in understanding and relationship, we can see that God has never forsaken us. When we seek to know Him, we can begin to discern His will. We can see that His promises still stand. However, as the psalmist implies, we must seek Him to continue seeing his faithfulness.

When you're encountering challenges, do you come to God to know him more? Or do you come to God for His provisions? How can you use your current circumstances to grow in relationship with God?

In this we have confidence – God has never forsaken us; He has never failed us. And He never will.

Today, seek to know God's will in whatever circumstances you are facing. Write a prayer that God may help you discern even a small piece of his plan. End the prayer, though, reminding yourself that even in the unknown, God has not forsaken you. He is right here with you.
